

14th Annual University of Toronto – Nipissing University Forestry Symposium

March 5th and 6th, 2010

Hosted by the Canadian Institute of Forestry and Nipissing University

Friday, March 5th

Weaver Auditorium, Nipissing University

1:15-1:30 Welcome

1:30-2:30 Michael Termikaelian (Ontario Forest Research Institute) –
Forests, Carbon and Climate Change

2:30-3:00 Aaron Walpole (Trent University) –
Lynx: Habitat Use and Tools to Predict Movement

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-3:45 Lisa Robinson (Nipissing University) –
Establishing Red Oak in Oak and Pine Ecosystems

3:45-4:15 Paul Courville (Nipissing University) –
Deriving Crown Attributes from Terrestrial LiDAR Scans

4:15-4:45 Kelly Major (Nipissing University) –
Northern red oak in Germany and Ontario

5:00-7:00 Meet and Greet Pizza Party – Nipissing University (Location TBA)

- Sponsored by the CIF Algonquin Section
- CIF student members free, others $5, cash bar with beer, wine and soft drinks
- Please advise Andree Morneault if you plan to attend to ensure that we have enough food

Free Event
Everyone Welcome!

Bring your pennies for the CIF's "Pennies for Seeds" National Challenge!

Saturday, March 6th

Canadian Ecology Centre, Samuel de Champlain Provincial Park

9:00am – 5:00pm Field Tour

Tolerant Hardwood and White Pine Silviculture

Tree Marking Exercise

Integrating Wildlife Habitat Considerations in Forestry

- Bag lunch (approximately $10)
- Please advise Andree Morneault if you plan to attend to ensure that we have enough food and vehicles

For more information or to register, please contact:
Andree Morneault: amorno@cogeco.ca or 475-5566

Canadian Institute of Forestry
Institut forestier du Canada