

Sustaining Corporate CIF Membership Application

The Canadian Institute of Forestry is a non-profit organization that has been the national voice of forest practitioners since 1908. Members are interdisciplinary forestry professionals, as well as many individuals with an interest and passion for our nation's forests. The Sustaining Corporate category of membership provides an opportunity for corporations, governments, financial institutions, educational institutions, cities, towns, and other organizations to support our many programs.

Benefits of Sustaining Corporate Membership
