

Integrating Wildland Fire Risk in Forest Management Planning

AGENDA: CIF Technical Workshop
Nov. 22, 2017, Chateau Louis Edmonton.

Time	Speaker	Title	Affiliation
07:45-08:30	Continental Breakfast
08:30-08:45	Meeting Introduction
08:45-09:30	Keynote Robert Keane	Wildlands fuel and how it can be manipulated to minimize wildfire in the Northern Rocky Mountains of the USA	USDA Forest Service
09:30-10:00	Mike Flannigan	Future climate and risk of fire	University of Alberta
10:00-10:30	Break
10:30-11:00	Laura Stewart	FireSmart and the wildland urban interface (WUI)	FireSmart Canada
11:00-11:30	Jen Beverly	Fire risk at community and neighborhood scales	University of Alberta
11:30-12:00	Dave Schroeder	Fire behaviour and fuels management at the stand level	Alberta Agriculture and Forestry
12:00-01:00	Lunch
01:00-01:30	Ted Gooding	Incorporating wildfire into forest management plans in Alberta	FORCORP
01:30-02:00	Dirk Kloss	The Ontario experience of incorporating fire in timber management planning	Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources
02:00-02:30	Neal McLoughlin	Wildfire risk management planning	Alberta Agriculture and Forestry
02:30-03:00	Break
03:00-03:30	Sonja Leverkus	Using cultural knowledge to manage fire-prone landscapes	Shifting Mosaics Consulting, Fort Nelson BC
03:30-04:00	Chris Stockdale and Quinn Barber	Fire risk and management of caribou habitat and protected areas: an overview of current Canadian Forest Service research	Canadian Forest Service
04:00-04:15	Wrap-up - Discussion		